THE CITY IMPROVEMENT WORKS.

The cleansing of the Augean stables was an insignificant labor compared with the cleansing of Buenos Aires. Year in, year out, we are always at the same pass, "about to begin," but no man of any position will risk his reputation by saying when the salubrity works will begun. Jupiter himself, if even he had Hercules for contractor, could not say when these works will be finished. We have millions and millions already spent under the street pavement; even the Thames tunnel is nothing compared with the 'cloaca mayor,' where years ago we all drank champagne and smoked ten dollar Havannah cigars. Every half year we have to remit exchange to Europe to pay the coupons to the 'Ingleses,' who first lent us the money, and next made us the sewers. In common parlance the sewers are eating their heads off. We had pipes enough for the whole town 7 years ago, but our friends in Belgrano saw them lying idle so long, they thought it was a shame not to turn them to some use, and very properly they were employed in the Water Works of Belgrano.

In those halcyon days we had Argentine Roman Cement Works in Barracas, but they have been canted, and we had brick works in San Isidro, but they have gone to ruin. The only thing that has survived all the splendour of our departed City Improvement Works is the 'Vasura,' in the long procession of departed City Improvement heroes, the only man left is the 'limpiador de las letrinas,' who still drives his carts through our streets, with Dawney's patent stamped on the back. 'In hoc signo vinces.'

The state of public health in the town is so bad that there is a push in the Government House, and a push at the Water Board, to have some steps taken, and at once, but the interests of the proposing contractors are so great, that unless President Roca with his iron decision of character take the matter in hand, we shall certainly have nothing done this year. Meanwhile the town is growing faster than a eucalyptus tree; population is flowing in so very quickly that the best trade going is making bricks. New houses are going up on all sides, but these houses want closets and sewers; and although we have the sewers, there is not a house in town connected with them, and the result is the whole city is becoming worse and worse. If in the terrible year 1871 Buenos Aires was unhealthy, what shall we say of it to-day?

In the Libertad of Saturday night we read a petition of Leopoldo Rochi and Co. to the Minister against Devotto & Co's. bid for the works, and we suppose to-morrow or next day we shall read a protest against Rochi & Co's. proposal. It is high time for the Government and the 'Comision' to give up trying to please everyone. If Devotto & Co's bid is the best and cheapest, then by all means let us close the bargain. Mr Devotto is a millionaire, he has the way, the means, and the capital to do the work. He is a member of the Municipality, and therefore must know everything of the city requirements. He is the President of the Italian Bank, and moreover, he is the owner of the finest and highest rented house in town. Every one says that his bid is the lowest, the cheapest, and the most advantageous. His great responsibility is another very important feature in considering his proposal. Why, therefore, we ask, does not the Government at once close with this bid, or if Rochi & Co's is more advantageous take that, but at all events let us adopt one or other, and that without further delay. The money to pay for the works has yet to be raised, but we believe there is no hitch in that business, as the moment the contract for the works is signed, the contract for the loan will be also concluded, there are bids already in for it, and mayhap fresh bids on the way out.

CHINA MUERTA CANAL.

We are indebted to our colleague La Prensa for the following startling advices from the Rio Negro, in which we may be excused for taking the deepest interest, since if carried out, it will make the Bay of San Blas the greatest port in the whole South, completely surpassing Bahia Blanca, Patagones or Viedma. The Prensa says:—

"Important project:—Mr. Engineer Furques, who was sent to the far South to consider some irrigation schemes in the Rio Negro district, entertains the most sanguine hopes of success—which will cause a complete agricultural revolution in the Province of Buenos Aires, freeing the farmers from the dangers of drought.

"Mr Furques is at present in Patagones, studying a scheme of the most transcendental importance, and yet of the easiest realization.

"It consists in making or rather completing a sort of natural canal from a bend in the river Negro at a place called China Muerta to the Bay of San Blas, a distance of some 25 leagues, through a rich fertile valley that only needs fresh water to be invaluable for agriculture. The canal is to start from a point named on the Rio Negro, 16 to 18 leagues above Patagones, at a place called Laguna del Abra. This lake, over a league in area, receives the flood waters from the Rio Negro in the perennial inundations of that river, and is 4 to 5 metres deep.

"From this lake the water spreads through a great valley, which runs right out to the Salina de Piedra, and from thence runs to the Bay of San Blas. It would appear that in pre-historic times this valley was the bed of a river, dried up or diverted, from causes unknown. It is sufficient to say that this projected canal is already half made by Nature. At a very trifling expense, communication can be opened between the Rio Negro and the Laguna del Abra. There it will be necessary to make similar works to throw the water from the lake into the valley, and once in the valley it will be a very trifling task to make the current flow down, falling ultimately into the Bay of San Blas.

"Apart from the immense importance of this scheme in watering such a zone of rich, fertile lands, at present useless for the want of fresh water, this magnificent project will endow San Blas with a fresh-water river, and it will save the low lands on the south bank, at the mouth of the Rio Negro, from those periodical inundations which so much injure those lands, and which, when the surplus waters are carried to San Blas, will give to the agriculturists all those rich low lands at the mouth of the Rio Negro."

In giving to our readers the foregoing extract from the Prensa, we may add that the proposed canal is nothing more than opening the banks of the Rio Negro and allowing the waters to flow through a magnificent "cañada," or valley, that stretches from that point of the Rio Negro to the very Bay of San Blas.

There is nothing in this province to surpass in beauty the scenery of the country thereabouts. All along the north bank of the Rio Negro, a high mountain range runs parallel with the river until arriving at this point, when a vast break in the mountain occurs and a splendid cañada opens, say three-quarters of a league wide, and this cañada runs right through to San Blas.

The land on the Rio Negro where this valley begins is owned by a Swiss gentleman, named Mr. Edward Zeller; and the estancia, one of the finest and most fertile on the Rio Negro, is called "China Muerta."

We drove over the land last November, and had ample opportunity to judge of the surpassing beauty of the scene and the great and remarkable fertility of the soil. The mountains on either side of the valley raise their high heads like portals to the cañada; but we kept close enough to the river side, as even then there were ugly rumours that away up in the valley the Indians had been seen. Major Rivadavia informed us that in the times of the Spaniards it was intended to turn the course of the Rio Negro into this valley, but the scheme was abandoned through fear of drying up the river at its mouth, below Patagones.

That the present scheme will ultimately be carried out we have not the slightest doubt; and all the vast lands in the region of that valley will then be called into new existence and fresh value.

PALERMO AGAIN.

"Arma virumque" was the subject of an old, but still surviving epic poem; now-a-days it has come down to prose, and the subject is horses and—asses. Great deeds have been done and great travels have ended. They must remain unchronicled.

I am not going to describe for you the road to Palermo already as well known, and as much worn as the Calle Florida; neither will I enter into details of ante-diluvian abuses, Train Time-tables, &c, &c. I deny all connection with the "genus" above-mentioned.

Passing over, therefore, those insignificant details, the saddling bell rings and we're all there; the sporting world and his neighbour; its fair se(x)ction in unwonted numbers. This puts us too on the right side of half an hour's delay, and as the song says "who knows what besides."

During this half hour I have not been idle, I have taken stock of everything. I have saluted a whole host of distinguished acquaintances. To say nothing of the next Derby winner, looking at me as if she knew I had found her out, or other more upright, certainly more pretentious specimens, hujus janius omnis (they say my Latin is getting rusty) let me introduce you to an old friend mirable dictu, for once unchanged. This time there has been no violent upheaval of the tile-ing to salute greatness now at all events it may be dubbed the Stand(h)ard House—Allons—Places are getting scarce, and the first race is about to be started. I miss one of the number announced in the card. The field is small very small.

The Drone is conspicuous by his absence, and his withdrawal has taken almost all the interest from the race. Atalanta has a long call in the betting; of the other two Personero is in most demand. The flag falls to a good start Personero bent on making the running. Going round the order is still the same, but coming into the straight Maipu second and Atalanta respectively overhauled him, but Atalanta always having the best of it, won easily by a length.

1st—Col. F. B. Bosch's Atalanta by Porteño-Bertha 4 years 135 lbs.

2nd—Stud Buenos Aires Maipu 2 ° 3 yrs. 100 lbs.

3rd—M. Marenco's Personero, 3 yrs 100 lbs.

The distance was 1,750 metres and the prize $240. m/n.

Only two were drawn out for the second race, but it created a great deal of interest despite the absence of Eolo. Tempest was promptly installed favourite and when at the post there was odds of 2 to 1 on him. It needs no description. The pace was rather slow, both keeping together until the finish when Tempest went to the front and won rather easily.

1st—F Urquiola's Tempest by Blair Adam-Hurricane, 3 years 120 lbs.

2nd—F B Bosch's Nemesis, 3 yrs. 115 lbs.

Distance 2,600 metres, prize 240 pesos nacional.

The thoroughbreds were now noted on the board, and were speedily got to the post. Pan, as usual, looked well and of the other two Mascotte looked far the best; although favourite, it was thought that the weight might just stop Pan, and Mascotte got some supporters. The race lay all through between Pan and Mascotte, as Corina was never in it, and a good finish ended in favour of Pan. Mascotte a good second.

Distance 1,750 metres, prize 400 pesos nacional.

1st—F B Bosch's Pan by Satanstoe-Farewell, 4 yrs 145 lbs.

2nd—Ecurie Prisionero's Mascotte, 3 yrs. 115 lbs.

3rd—Stud Santa Elena's Corina, 3 yrs. 115 lbs.

The Fourth Race was the race of the meeting, and the whole of the entries went to the post.

Glicina was soon sent to the head of the betting, but before the start she was replaced by Felicité, who was well backed. Glicina in the paddock looked trained to a T, and was in much more demand than her half-sister Avispa, a beautiful mare but on the small side. Felicité looked all over a winner and will give a better account of herself yet. The start was made from the half round post, and after a short delay all got off well together. Felicité seemed to be behind but as they were all so close it was hard to distinguish. Making the bottom circuit and coming into the straight there was a general scattering. Coming up to the post Glicina and Avispa seemed to have it all their own way, but a vigorous push on Felicité brought her well forward and she was only beaten for second place on the post. This was a great triumph for the Blair Adam. Kemmis breed, the three first being of that strain as well as the winner of the second race Tempest.

1st—Stud Buenos Aires by Blair Adam-May Flower, 100 lbs.

2nd—Stud Buenos Aires, Avispa 100 lbs.

3rd—Stud Belgrano's Felicité 100 lbs.

Also ran S. Casey's Dora, Stud Sta. Teresa, Ciré, F. B. Bosch's Asphodel Mariano M. Benitez, Fly, Stud Santa Elena's Cocotte.

As the fair sex were so fairly represented it would have been but a merited mark of deference to have provided some kind of music for their delectation. The want was, I believe felt, and will, it is to be hoped, be supplied on future occasions. I noticed a good many poor unfortunates wending their homeward way with heaviness written on their hearts, and lightness on their pockets, I joined them in sympathy for I too could have exclaimed with the unhappy Dido.

'Non ignara mali miseris sucurrere (?) disco."

Two British regiments have left Egypt, one for Malta, the other for Gibraltar. A Battery of Artillery is also going, thus reducing the army of occupation to 6,000 men.

The Emperor of Germany has made the Prince of Wales a Marshal in the German Army, and her Majesty the Queen has written a letter of thanks to His Imperial Majesty.

England has proposed to the United States a special Extradition Treaty in reference solely to Fenians and their accomplices, the pact to be renewed every 3 years.

The agitation in France increases daily: Buonapartists, Monarchists and Anarchists are all in the field together, and Chaos seems rapidly approaching, all the quicker as President Grevy's resignation is generally spoken of. Prince Napoleon's manifesto has been placarded in every town and city in the departments. Four thousand Legitimists held a meeting in the Hippodrome at Lille, and resolutions were passed declaring that the Monarchy was now the only hope for France.

On the 8th the Government began to take steps to prevent public meetings. The Place des Invalides was occupied by police, and the crowds of working men were dispersed by them.

On the 10th the Socialists announced another meeting for the following day, and the Government at once took very decided steps. Louise Michel was the first locked up, then the editor of the Gaulois was sent to keep her company; and on his heels 20 working men were sent to prison. A band of working men marched along the Boulevard St Germain and broke into and sacked several bakers' shops. Twenty eight of them were arrested and condemned to different terms of punishment by the police magistrates.

On the 11th matters became very serious, and all the troops of the garrison of Paris were kept in barracks, under arms. The Socialists held several meetings, at which the speakers violently proclaimed revolution and Anarchy as the only panacea for the evils of the country. At the Hotel de Ville the police dispersed some two thousand people. Scuffles with the police and troops took place in different parts of Paris, and finally over 10,000 working men surrounded the Palace of President Grevy, but the cavalry of the Republican Guard charged out on them and dispersed them in all directions. The palace was also guarded by large bodies of Infantry. When the news of the cavalry having charged the people spread, a panic set in amongst the traders, and all the shops were closed and barricaded. The ferocious "petroleuse" Paula Minkfrevoler went about inciting the people to sack and burn everything. When the troops approached she made her escape.

Meanwhile troops were hurried at the double to the Chambers, the Ministries and other public places, to save them from the mob. The Bricklayers held a violent meeting, and nearly beat to death one of their number. Guyot, a Town Councillor, who ventured to say a word in favour of the Napoleons. At the Hotel de Ville the Municipality had a stormy debate on a motion "to restore the National Guard; arm all the citizens; disband the city police, and divide 500,000 francs amongst the Working Men's Societies!!

On the 12th things were as bad as ever. Deposits of dynamite and other explosives were found by the police in different quarters of the city, and arrests were made right and left. In the afternoon the principal thoroughfares were completely blocked up by the surging mob, through which the cavalry slowly forced their way; but there was no violence of any kind on either side. At the Hotel de Ville the dense crowd prevented all access to the building. There were 5000 people in the Place du Trone; but there was no demonstration; squadrons of cavalry held the Concorde and Invalides bridges. Several meetings and processions of workmen were either frustrated or dispersed at once by the rapid and skilful manœuvring of the cavalry, and the day ended without bloodshed. The students of the Saint Louis College made a Legitimist demonstration, and 260 of them were expelled.

The Republican journals say that the Monarchists backed up the Anarchists in getting up the demonstrations. The Bonapartist and Monarchical papers openly declare that the present agitation is only the forerunner of what is soon to come. The Figaro says that "the Third Republic rose by Revolution and will perish by Revolution": Clemenceau ill; industry prostrate; thousands out of work—this is the Republic."

In Spain the "Black Hand" continues to keep the country in great agitation, but the Government have acted with such energy and decision that it is hoped the backbone of the conspiracy is effectually broken. The conspirators have been arrested by wholesale and their most important papers seized, and this has spread such terror amongst their dupes in the provinces that the branch societies there are all coming forward to save themselves by placing their papers in the hands of the Government.

Fresh conspiracies discovered in Russia, and hundreds arrested.

At Llodio (Spain) the portico of a church fell; 30 killed and 42 injured.

The Pagret Theatre in Havannah fell and killed the owner and several of his employees.

Princess Hohenlohe, wife of the former German Ambassador in Paris, has left that city in indignation at the insults of the mob who stopped her carriage in the street.

The French Government meditates immense Public Works in Paris, to keep the people employed.

Forty four vessels locked in the ice at Odessa, which resists even dynamite.

Dalalla, the Tramway King of Turin, has bolted, leaving a deficit of 1½ million francs.

Austrian Minister of War has poohibited the use of any language but German in the army of the empire.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

GENERAL NEWS.

March 9, 1883.

This is my fifth letter duriag the week, but there are some items to be cleared up. The Exchange Telegraph Company telegram, announcing that the French authorities would agree to the extradition of Byrne, must have been supplied to the company's agent in Paris by the English detectives, and represents much of the false news the papers have recently published on Irish affairs. Whilst that despatch was sent to the English papers, the order for Byrne's release must have been penned, for he was set at liberty last night. The evidence produced by the English Government does not appear to have been conclusive. The same defect may occur in regard to the evidence in the case of Sheridan and Walsh. Should that be so, the Government at home will deserve reprobation for allowing the Irish lawyers to trifle with the question of extradition, held so sacred by the English people.

No one supposes that because the French police have refused to surrender Byrne that he or any other of the refugees must necessarily be innocent. On the contrary, the news this morning that Mr. Egan, the Treasurer of the Land League, had absconded, increases very much the ugliness of the charges against Mr. Parnell and his friends. On the other hand, the vindictive eagerness of the Government to condemn, in deference to the excited prejudices of the English, or to the private feelings of the Duke of Devonshire, has received a severe check. How strongly these prejudices are sometimes excited is shown by the taunting article of the Times, in regard to Carey's election to the Town Council in Dublin, and adducing his election as evidence against the extension of the franchise in Ireland. Mr. Charles Dawson, in two lines; shows that Carey was elected by an infinitely small constituency, chiefly Conservative and Protestant. He says, had the constituency been larger Carey, would not have been elected. Mr. Dawson's figures are, to a certain extent, conclusive against the argument of the Times, but he has yet to show that a large constituency might not have elected a principal in the Phœnix Park murders instead of an accessory.

No. 1 is, in fact, becoming a nuisance, if not a myth. The latest rumour is, that the Government had received evidence which established, beyond doubt, that No. 1 is an Irish American officer now in the United States. The Government had much better leave the gentleman where he is and go on with its trial, and apply afterwards for the extradition of the accessories, otherwise we shall begin to think that the evidence in its possession is, after all, not of much value.

The Irish lawyers are making a good thing out of this business. Some fifty thousands pounds have already been expended by the Government.

Sir Stafford Northcote has again been foiled in his attempt to waste the public time in discussing the Kilmainham compact. The Opposition would do much more good to the community and, perhaps, more damage to the Government, if instead of their present tactics of harassing they would take up measures the Government neglects. People are indignant and becoming weary of Parliamentary institutions on the old lines of party contests.

Mr. Chamberlain has administered a sharp reproof to a deputation of shipowners who, amongst other things, wanted the re-enactment of the law which enabled them to arrest deserting seamen without a warrant. He distinctly refused to take part in any such legislation, and as to other questions, he proposed the formation of a Shipping Council, consisting of deputies from the shipping and trading interests and the Board of Trade. It was represented to him that no adequate necessity had been shown for the establishment of such a body. "No adequate necessity, gentlemen," said Mr. Chamberlain, "when 31,118 lives were lost last year, many by preventable causes!" In fact, he "plimsolled" the shipping gentry pretty smartly, and they retired with their tails down, thanking him for his courtesy. The laissez faire is dead, as the Times says: The day has gone by when we are to do as we please with our own ships, when we have insured them, and supplied them with prayer-books.

The Tariff Bill which has been passed in the United States by a majority of 1, is in itself not very important. It is an offspring of the Tariff Commission, which was not initiated by Free Traders, but by the Republican party, who began to see that the current of opinion was going against them, and that it would be better to reduce the taxes on lucifer matches than run the chance of a real Free Trade measure being introduced. The present measure, just signed by the President, will satisfy no party, and the best that can be said of it is that it is the thin end of the wedge, which is shortly to split up the monstrous Protectionist system in the States, of which one great evil is that it creates artificially separate interests that lead to political animosities.

The new Bill is said to fix the duties as follows:—

"Iron ore, 75 cents. per ton; pig iron, six dollars 72 cents. per ton; steel valued at between four and seven cents. per pound, 45 per cent. ad valorem, at between seven and 11 cents., specific duty, 2¾ cents. per pound; at over 11, 3½ c. per pound. The rate on steel rails is fixed at 17 dollars per ton. The average reduction in cotton goods is one-third, except for fine hosiery. Laces, embroideries, insertings, curtains and velvets are increased one-third. Woollen goods and manufactures are reduced on an average to 35 per cent., ad valorem. The reduction on carpets is one-third of the present rates.

"As compared with the Senate Bill all the changes are increases. This is the best outline now possible, and I make it with the reserve that the Bill is not yet printed. Manufacturers of iron, woollen goods and steel are dissatisfied, and say the existence of their industries is threatened. It seems likely the Committee's Report may be accepted, but it is certain that this settlement will not be final, as people demand radical changes. The reduction of the internal revenue is over forty millions of dollars.

"The Senate has given much time to the wool schedule and reduced duties on imported wools of several classes on the average from 15 to 20 per cent., leaving the rates to range from 26 to 45 per cent. ad valorem. These high rates on raw material are the excuse for the nearly prohibitory duty on manufactured wools. The compound duties fixed on flannels, blankets, hats of wool, knit goods, balmorals, woollen and worsted yarns are equivas lent to 75 per cent. ad valorem when the goods are valued at not exceeding 40 cents per pound; 68 per cent. when valued above 40 cents per pound and not above 60; 72 per cent. when valued at above 60 and not above 80, and 62 per cent. when valued at above 80. The duties upon the lower grades are higher than those upon the upper grades, and are still well nigh prohibitory."

Business, on the whole, is healthy in the United States, and, it is hoped that it will soon have a good effect on trade in England.

MR VANSITTART'S REPORT.

ADMINISTRATIVE, FINANCIAL, ETC.

It is worth noticing that this steady increase of revenue from 1870 to 1873, as mentioned by Mr West, applies in a smaller ratio to the present time, for, according to the receipts which I have given above, amounting to over £100,000 for 1881, it may be roughly stated that there is a net increase of £30,000 in the revenue since the year 1873. From the last accounts it appears that the net proceeds of the custom house at Asuncion reach 73,000 dollars (£14,600) for the month of August, this sum being more than double the average monthly Returns for the last four or five years, and it may safely be said that, should the country continue in its present prosperous and satisfactory state, the revenue will, before long, double the actual expenditure.

With the exception of the very heavy expenditure (153,486) incurred during the year 1873, as given by Mr. West, and which can only be accounted for owing to the prostrate state of Paraguay after the war, and anarchy having broken out that year, the increase of the expenditure since that period to the present time has been comparatively moderate. The Budget of estimated expenditure for 1880 only amounted to 270,032 dol! (£64,006 8s), whereas, as will be seen above, the Estimates for 1883 are calculated at £70,592 14s. 5d.

The Home Debt, which, at present, amounts to 500,000 dollars (£100,000), is amortizable by an additional duty of 15 per cent on all imports. Owing to this amortization, the debt has been reduced in three years from the sum of 1,000,000 dollars (£200,000) to its present amount.

The Foreign Debt of the Paraguayan Government consists of the two loans negotiated in London in 1871 and 1872, amounting together to the sum of 6,867,756 dollars (£1,373,551) and the interest on the same since the years 1871 and 1872; as likewise of the sum of 9,876,466 dollars (£1,975,293) for losses and injuries sustained by Brazilian subjects during the war, as fixed by the Mixed Commission. To this latter sum may be added the amount accruing from interest thereon from the year 1880, at the rate of ½ per cent monthly.

An Argentine Commission is now sitting at Asuncion, with a view to settle similar claims and damages, due to Argentine subjects for losses sustained during the war.

The grand total, viz, External Debt, deposits, and stamps, amounting to...	17,461,079 14

The Minister of Finance, in laying before the Congress the Custom House receipts, etc., for the year 1881, touches in a general way upon the present financial condition of Paraguay, as well as on the Internal and External Debt. I quote, in translation, the principal passages bearing upon this subject. His Excellency opens his remarks by saying:—

"I have once more the agreeable duty of informing you that our financial situation shows manifest signs of progress from year to year.

"At the close of my last Report I said that if a fine season ensued and the crops were saved, we might augur better and more fortunate times for our country. That hope has been realized, and I feel satisfaction in acquainting you that last year has proved itself, as regards our financial position, the best we have had for a long time past.

"I do not mean to say by this that we have attained the summit of our desires. We are still far, very far, from that prosperity which we should wish for; scarcely, indeed, can we say that we have made our first steps on the road to prosperity.

"Whilst endeavouring to better our financial position, we should not aim only at meeting the outlay occasioned by the public service of the country, but should endeavour at the same time to foster the development of private wealth, on which the well-being of the community at large is based.

"To attain this object, however, the protection of the Government, and the Government initiative, are not all sufficient; it is necessary that the nation at large should co-operate to this end, by contributing in their turn to the establishment of useful undertakings.

"In compliance with these principles, the Government has endeavoured to foster by all lawful means the industry, the agriculture, and the commerce of the nation, by bestowing on them all the guarantees in its power, as well as by counselling the concession of privileges, to be given to such industrial enterprises as should be set on foot.

"If our progress thus far has been slow, this circumstance is due, not to the indifference and the apathy of the Government, but to the unavoidable difficulties against which these three important elements of national prosperity have been compelled to strive, resulting from a deficiency alike of capital and of enterprise, which are the essential promoters of progress and development.

"By their inability to value at its just, with the spirit of modern ideas, and by their refusal to foster and develop private enterprise by the institution of banking establishments, and other aids to credit, the endeavours of the Government have proved ineffectual and barren of results.

"Paraguay offers a vast field for the safe employment and reproduction of capital, but the obstacles above adverted to, and the lack of confidence engendered by the political vicissitudes to which this country has been a prey, ever since the disastrous five years' war, and, above all, the errors committed by the first Governments organized in the country subsequent to that overwhelming catastrophe, have paralyzed our progress for a long time to come.

"Thanks to the efforts put forth by those now in power, our internal credit is duly secured. A circumstance of recent occurrence will suffice to convince you of the truth of this assertion. The 'coupons' of the Internal Debt, which were lately put in circulation, and which were authorized by the Law of the 30th July, 1880, are quoted in the market with a premium of 4 per cent, a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of our financial history.

OVERSTOCKING.

Dear Standard.

Mr. Martin merits every praise. Since he backed the Cruelty Prevention Society, the same has become popular.

Although too much sentimentality with respect to horses, for instance, would not do, since many 'emparcadores' have been brought to reason by hard treatment, yet, if it can happen in the Calle Brazil of this city that a cartman puts a rope to the tongue of a tired horse, and makes another horse pull the rope, until—my pen refuses to continue—then a protection of animals has become a necessity.

This society will, we hope, protect the animals in this city, but there are 100 millions of animals in the camp, which are at the mercy of their owners, and many estancieros who will read the above crossing themselves and finding the tale too shocking altogether to be put into the columns of a newspaper, will put 30,000 sheep upon a league of camp, where only 20,000 find sufficient food.

He will see his sheep die by hunger and besides this by the scab, since he does not think it necessary to go to the expense of buying tobacco and sulphur for curing them.

Here I shall be told by many that these things cannot be helped and it has been always so, but I beg to give the answer that there is a help, but no reason that these things must go on any longer, since there are sufficient camps, and good camps; and it has been so whilst the Indians were in San Carlos and Curumalan, there does not exist a reason now any more, why the overstocking system should be a necessity.

The old complaint that it takes such a long time to refine the new camps and to make them fit for sheep does not hold any more, since we have now many leagues of new camps which, after one year's stocking by cattle and two to three years by sheep, produce a wool which is fit for combing purposes.

Here no allusion is made to ploughing the ground and sowing Kentucky grass etc, I have only said on this subject in my former letters, that I find it ridiculous to ridiculize an experiment before its results are known; and if the Europeans imported sheep, cattle and horses, which did not exist here (excepting some bones which we find in the alluvium), why shouldn't they import seeds for winter grasses, which as every body knows, are very scarce in this country.

My above remarks refer to refining the camps after the old style; I should be very sorry if 90 per cent of your readers would not believe what I said, but I cannot help it, I only report what I have frequently occasion to see.

I do not mean to call upon the estancieros as a member of the Prevention of Cruelty Society and ask them to feed their sheep well; in the first instance I know they would laugh at me, and in the second I do not belong to the society at all, since I have enough to do to care for my own children and have no time to occupy myself—to use a Darwinian phrase—with any of the inferior animals.

But I shall try to show them that it is a cruelty to their own pockets when they put 30 to 35,000 sheep and 1,000 head of cattle upon one league of, although the very best, inside camp, since 20 to 25,000 sheep and 1,000 head of cattle on the same camp would pay them much better.

One-third less sheep than the camp can hold "in good seasons" will always pay better:

1st. By 25 per cent more wool.

2nd. By 10 per cent greater value of the wool.

3rd. By the sale of capones.

4th. A better by 10 per cent increase in the flocks, not to speak of the losses of sheep when the season is bad, and without counting the circumstance that less capital is invested in the stock.

I am extremely curious, whether there will be any contradictions against this statement by practical estancieros, but I believe, although I never called a live sheep my own, I can sustain what I have said.

It is not at all my purpose to teach estancieros things which they know better than myself, but as I am in the wool trade and obliged to hear every day the complaints of buyers about the quality of our wools, it is quite natural that one thing occupies my mind, viz., what is the reason, or as the natives say: "adonde está el perro enterrado?"

EDITOR'S TABLE

Sunday was a delightful day and the fetes and amusements of all kinds, in all directions, so baffled description that we won't describe them, but merely say that they were all a brilliant success. Our special turf reporter "Eques," whom we have not seen for six months, turned up unexpectedly at Palermo. We were fearfully frightened as we ran up against him, and thought it was his ghost; but it wasn't, and he describes the races in another column. The St. Cloud Fete wound up splendidly, but our reporter says the girls did not leave him the price of his dinner, and he must be excused from writing about it, as the Fates alone can tell how is to reach the end of the month—in a financial sense. At Saavedra there was a three-hundred-mouths pic-nic, at the tail end of which Governor Roach slipped in for a glass of champagne, having dashed over from Belgrano, where he had assisted at an Italian fete that is to last to the middle of next week. Who can match our Italian friends in the "fiesta"-line? Echo answers, None!

The sensation in the morning papers of yesterday was the fight between two of our most esteemed colleagues—the editors of the Nacion Espanola and Correo Espanol, in Calle Morene. "They met, 't was in a crowd," at the corner of Piedras. Out came the revolvers and, in the twinkling of an eye, the Sunday hat of one of the combatants was rendered unwearable for ever. Then the left wing of the shirt collar of the other was shot away; then the brother-in-law of one editor attacked the other from behind and floored him with a smack on the crown; then came four representatives of "la autoridad," and the fight was over, and everybody concerned walked off to jail. The whole affair arose from the pernicious custom that prevails with almost every Press in the world, except the English, viz., personalities between editors of different opinions. We sincerely trust that this unfortunate incident between our esteemed Spanish confreres will be carried no further.

A subscriber who takes great interest in having Mr Nettleship's incomparable wooden pavement laid down in the square in which he earns his daily crust, has favoured us with an important article on the subject from a Liverpool paper. We hold it for to-morrow. We understand that the Lord Mayor has decided to have 50 more squares laid with this splendid pavement, and we again call his Lordship's attention to the fact that those central squares where bankers, merchants and editors most do congregate have an undoubted right to priority of this wooden pavement which has solved so victoriously the long fight between Wood and Stone. No more Stone, my Lord Mayor! at least for business and aristocratic quarters of a city for the which you have in so short a time done so much.

The La France brings 610 new agriculturists and startling particulars of the political disturbances in Paris. Let any cool-headed man read those particulars, which we give in another column, and then go and underwrite the life of the Third French Republic for even one year. We said it three months ago, and say it again. Fair France is about to change her form of Government and go back to what one of her own most eminent writers has lately called "her first love"—Monarchy. It is a choice between that and Anarchy.

A child, while playing in Calle Alsina on Sunday, tripped over a stone and cut her little head badly. "Mirabile dictu," the police kindly allowed her to be carried into the nearest "botica" and the wound to be dressed without waiting for that mighty personage the "oficial de servicio" to give his medical opinion on the case; an outrageous and inhuman farce which cost poor Mr. Amelong his, life last week, and made a widow and three orphans within a few hours.

The latest news from the South is, that the Hutton Chaytor is discharging her cargo in San Blas Bay into the steamer Oscar, which Mr. Bertorelli kindly sent to her assistance. She is leaking badly, but the captain hopes to set her all right when he gets her cargo out.

A victimised subscriber, who looked as if he had had castor oil for breakfast, called on us yesterday to protest against the exorbitant price and shocking quality of the "choppes" sold on the Palermo race-course on Sunday to thirsty souls. He attributes his cadaverous appearance solely to these causes. Beer that is only fit to take the paint off a hall-door is not exactly the kind of "refresco" for an exhausted turfite. He should have gone to Hansen's, a few squares off.

There will be a Communion Service in the Scotch Church at Chascomus on Sunday next. At the Preparatory Service, to be held on Friday, at noon, the Rev. James Smith A.M. will officiate.

An opposition to the Hurlingham Club at Maldonado has been started at San Martin, where they had their first drive at the poor pigeons on Sunday last. We agree with her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales on this point. Slaughtering pigeons is no sport, in spite of my Lord Walsinham's special pleading for the unmanly slaughter.

We have a most interesting letter from our Special Correspondent with General Villegas's army in the South, but hold it for to-morrow, as we have no more space to-day.

The Pacific steamer Britannia arrived yesterday at Montevideo, and we expect later English papers this morning.

Governor Roach will leave to-morrow for the South, to inspect the Obras de Nivelacion. He will stay at Mr George Keen's estancia, Olavarria, and will not return to town

ON 'CHANGE.

	April 9th, 1883
Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	85½
National Bank Shares	104½

The week has opened on a dull falling stock market. Cedulas Series A fell ¼, Series E every one offering to sell. Prices opened cash at 85½, dropped to ¼; one sale at the closing hour was marked at 85½. National Bank Shares ruled equally dreary, 250 cash sold at 104½, and for end of month 1,800 sold, opening at 105, dropping to 104¾ and closing at 105. Municipal Bonds are very much offered, but no sale effected, they can be bought at 81, although the last sale was at 84. Lanus Deposits Bonds, one lot sold at 84.

Messrs. Emilio Martinez and Peter Gandulfo, who left yesterday in the Orenoque for Europe, leave a very serious blank at the ring, where they were such regular attendants, and the great dullness in the market to-day was attributed to their absence. Mr. Gandulfo was one of our most successful and spirited speculators in stocks; he was always buying or selling, and always moving the market. Mr. Emily Martinez about a year ago directed a regular body guard of brokers who held the market and made very large sums every month as long as the speculation lasted. To-day these gentlemen are doing almost nothing and probably one or two of them will leave for Europe.

If speculation in stock and shares has died out it is certainly brisk enough in lands, all the real estate and land brokers are doing a good business. We spoke with one the other day who stated that his commissions in the month amounted to more than President Roca's salary. Messrs. Hughes & Vernet have sold of the Sala's and Cernada's lands, some 40 square leagues, nearly all the buyers Ingleses; and the 21 square leagues to be sold by Bullrich on 25th inst. are attracting so much notice that it is probable, owing to their splendid situation, within 80 leagues of town and biscted by the TransandineRailway, that they will fetch even higher prices than the Loreto lands. We heard on 'Change this afternoon that a large party has started from the North to go over these lands of Bullrich's; we shall therefore in a few days know more about them, but all the camps in that direction are selling well. Don Federico Meyrelles has just sold to Dr. Bunge 4 square leagues of land close to Las Tunas and some 30 leagues farther out than Bullrich's lands, and the price paid was $100,000% per league; and the brokers, Pico and Gomez, arranged to-day the difficulty about the Muniz lands purchased by Mr. Geddard, of Montevideo, alongside the Meyrelles' land, price paid $95,000% per league. All this goes to show what the Transandine Railway is doing for the camps out there. We have not the slightest doubt that, when this railway is running, these lands, will be cheap at one thousand gold ounces the league.

Exchange brokers report bills passed at 5.19 this morning and 49⅜ on London. Nothing more is said about the Sta. Fé bills, some of them have been passed in Rosario.

Four large European steamers have just entered Montevideo, they all bring cargo and passengers for here:—the La France, the Ville San Nicolas, the General Werder, and the Britannia. Another steamer has entered from the Canary Islands, but in distress.

At the Municipality they say all the coupons have now been paid with the exception of 3 or 4. This is as it should be, and we trust it will be a very long day before these coupons of the city will be in default. Mr. Alvear deserves every praise for the very active part he took in this business. It must ever be remembered that the law ordered the National Government to pay the first coupon, nevertheless Mr. Alvear had funds in his Treasury, and the Municipality itself paid the coupon.

The death of Mr. Buchanan, one of the oldest Scotch residents in the R. Plate, is announced; he died rife in years, 82, and witnessed the most wondrous changes in this country.

Parties looking for a really comfortable family residence have a good opportunity to find same, now Rev. Mr. Gebbie's comfortable home at the Lomas de Zamora is to rent. Lomas is the healthiest and most social spot around this city.

The sale of 500 head of mestizo cattle at Canada de Gomez is reported at the remarkably cheap figure of $163% per. Mr. Arteaga buyer. This shows a shocking fall in the price of cattle.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 20,000 at 100½
For cash E 26,800 at 85½-¼-½
For April 30th E 105,000 at 85½
Sales, 151,800
National Bank Shares—
For cash 250 at 104½
For April 30th 1,800 at 105-104¾-105
Sales, 2,050
National Bonds, 1882—
For cash 4,000 at 84

The La France will be up to-morrow with 600 immigrants and the Ville de San Nicolas with 23.

The Strabo came up to-day wich 2,240 tons of cargo.

The Leibnitz spoke on March 1st in Lat. 40° 12' N., and Long. 5° 36 W., the vessel Joseph Somes from Coruña to Cardiff, abandoned and sinking.

The German barque Confluentia entered the Boca yesterday.

Twenty-three thousand arrobes wool this morning at Plaza Once. 15,000 sold.

Mr. Balleto sold the well-known Alvarez wool from Moreno 30,000 arrobes at $86. About 15,000 arrobes of lambs' wool sold at $60-76.

The fine Lowry property on the Calle Rivadavia near Almagro, between the two Tramway Stations, is advertized for sale. The wall is white-washed and the auction notice frescoed on the wall. The largest advertisement we have ever seen. One small notice in our columns is worth a dozen frescoes.

At afterhours there was scarcely anything doing in stocks, everything in that line ruled monstrously dull, and no speculation either way. Cedulas a shade better, at 85½.

The new certificates for Nat. Bank shares were shewn on 'Change to-day, they are very neatly printed, and look worth a premium, still at the moment they are offering at 98, and no buyers.

Freights firm, 25 frs. in full for Havre and Dunkirk, and 25s for Antwerp; bales offering everywhere and waiting in lighters for steamers to take them off.

Exchange passed on Montevideo at 2¼ and at ⅜. On Antwerp 5.21, very little done, no steamer before 11th.

The Britannia entered true to time, she leaves in the morning. Mr Doulton took leave of his many friends on 'Change; he goes to-night to Montevideo to take Britannia in the morning for Valparaiso.

Dn Jose Atkins, of Patagones, who has arrived in Villarina, was welcomed. He states that the camps down there are excellent and cattle and sheep doing well.

The hall-door of the Carabassa Bank is now up; it is massive, solid and magnificent. We suppose it came from Germany, where the hinges and locks most certainly did. Very soon this splendid edifice will be finished, and then indeed it will be a pleasure to make a deposit or discount a bill in the Carabassa Bank.

The English Bank of the River Plate is also going ahead, and soon the walls will be up and roof put on.

At the North Market this morning there was a brisk business in wool, and from 15 to 20,000 arr. sold.

Mr Casey sold—
4000 ar. Entre Rios wool, 82
4000 do Bahia Blanca, 68.

The Diario of this evening published a very interesting correspondence from Nahuel Huapi, and some invaluable figures of the Custom House revenue for first quarter, which amounted to 4,729,405 pats, which shows an increase, calculating for the 12 months, of 2 millions pats over last year.

Under execution by Provincial Bank, the saladero at San Nicolas will soon be sold at auction.

Mr Quesada, of the well-known and popular auctioneering firm of Baltar and Quesada, has arrived back in La France; he has only 10 days' quarantine at Flores Island, dating from sailing from Rio.

The sale of the opera theatre in Rosario to Mr Casado for a Mortgage Bank is confirmed; price 20,000 pats.

The La France mails are expected up in the morning.

The Clerks Mutual Protection Society has been started. Messrs. Carabassa, F. Uruburu and T. Nocelli giving in their best support. A similar English Society existed in this city years ago and prospered; finally, as most of the clerks became 'patrons' it was liquidated.

Telegrams and letters from Montevideo say that the money crisis is worse. The financial schemes passed. President Santo's house stopped, owing to row with builder. The place to be sold at auction.

On 12th inst. Messrs. Gowland and Co., will sell the hull and cargo of the wrecked British barque Shannon, on English Bank.

Fifteen hundred novillos from Santa Fé reported sold at 19 efective Bolivians. Let those instructed in the currency say how much in paper money that is.

The death of Mr. Robert Andrews, of London and formerly of Montevideo, is announced. Deceased was for many years connected with the late Mr. Wilson in the coal business and was much esteemed by all who knew him. He retired from business some 16 years ago and did not return to the R. Plate.

Mr. Pierson, of the celebrated Famatina Mines of Rioja, was welcomed on 'Change. He reports the Joint Stock business in Paris already announced as concluded, and the Mines bought by the Company. Mr. P. has just returned from Europe, and in a few days will go up to Rioja.

Mr. A. Lamas Jr., arrived down on Saturday from Rosario, with a large consignment of silver in bars from the Famatina Mines. The silver goes forward to Europe.

They say that the back accounts of the Contribucion Directa Tax show that the amount due to the Government for years of unpaid Contribucion is 21 millions currency. Some party has now come forward and proposed to the Government to buy up the claim, or to collect in these old accounts for a good commission. The amount is so large that we fear the Government will get but little of it, and these old claims will be written off.

On the 16th inst a meeting of the creditors of the Argentine Bank will be held. It is much to be regretted that the affairs of this Bank were not long ago wound up. The Bank is now in such low water that they are offering on the Bolsa certificates of deposit with 7 or 8 years interest, at 90 per cent discount on the capital, interest counting for nothing, and even at this monstrous shave these certificates can find no buyers.

An Italian has applied to the Minister of the Interior for permit to cut 4,000 hard wood beams and 4,000 sleepers, in the forests of the Gran Chaco. Give it to him by all means. The trees as they at present stand are valueless.

The Argentine steamer Resguardo starts this week for Bahia Blanca to relieve the gunboat Bermejo.

Mr. Goyo Soler, the future candidate for the post of Governor of Buenos Aires, has petitioned Government for a 'Cangregal' on the port side of the Bay of Bahia Blanca. What our much esteemed friend intends doing with this questionable description of property it is impossible for us to say. We trust the Government will at once give it to him. Possibly he intends to put up swimming baths, but when the tide is out it will be a dangerous place enough for bathers.

The sale by auction of a box in the dress circle of the Politeama is announced

BANKERS

The Consolidated Bank, Limited, London.

The London and River Plate Bank, Limited, Buenos Aires.

This Company having purchased all the property, rights, patents, privileges and concessions in the Argentine, Uruguay and Paraguay Republics, formerly the property of the Companies known as the "Pantelephone," and the "Bell Perfeccionado," is prepared to sell or lease telephones or telephone lines or use in any part of the Argentine Republic, the Banda Oriental or Paraguay. It possesses exclusive rights for all of these countries for the Bell and Blake Telephones, known throughout the Plate as the Bell Perfeccionado,

The only instrument used in the United States

And by the United Telephone Company of England and by nearly all the principal Telephone Exchanges of the world.

The company is now receiving the largest shipments, it is believed, of telephone material ever obtained at one time by any Company existing, including 650 complete sets of telephone instruments, 1000 miles of wire, 40 miles of cable conductor, and switch board and Central Office appliances all of latest and best manufacture.

The Company is not subsidiary to any other, and is under no obligation to purchase its supplies from any particular source.

It proposes to furnish the public of Buenos Aires with the best telephonic instruments obtainable, and the best service practicable.

Thus far, in consequence of the lack of Bell instruments, only four hundred of its nearly one thousand subscribers have been supplied.

The Pan instruments in use by the remainder will now as rapidly as possible be replaced by the Bell and a better service than any heretofore known in Buenos Aires will be the result.

Any information desired will be most cheerfully afforded on application in person, or by letter at the Company's offices 26 and 28 Calle San Martin.
